

GLOBE TROTTER VISITS THE CITY

Wm. Brown Is Touring The World With Dogs to Win Wager of $10,000

Wm. Brown of St. Johns, Newfoundland, who with a team of six dogs is touring the world on a wager of $10,000, arrived in Rhinelan-der, Sunday.

Brown is perhaps the most unique globe trotter ever known and his unusual undertaking of journeying around the world with dogs has made him famous. He is on the last 4,000 miles of his travels and he expects to reach St. Johns, New foundland, the city from which he started on his strange tour Dec.
24, 1903, within the next year. A sporting club of St. Johns put up $10,000 that Brown could not encircle the globe in seven years with dogs and return home with at least one of the original animals and some part of the wagon with which he started. Another condition was that he depart without a cent and earn his way by selling postcard pictures of himself and dogs.

Mr. Brown has three of his original dogs left and his vehicle is wholly intact. Unless misfortune interferes he will easily win the money on deposit at St. Johns.

When Brown commenced his trip he went by boat from St. Johns to Liverpool. He then covered the British Isles, went through Europe, Africa and Asia. From the Orient
he crossed the Pacific to California and is now making his way eastward. In the last four and one-half years since he left home Brown has traveled over 20,000 miles and has had numerous unusual experiences and suffered many hardships. While crossing the steppes of Siberia he was several times chased by wolves. It required eighty days for his dogs to cross the Sahara Desert in Africa and during that time the only food obtainable was dry corn. In some of the semi-civilized countries he was on more than one occasion attacked by the natives.

Mr. Brown has in his possession credentials from the mayors and high officials of all the cities in which he has passed through, showing that he has actually made the journey and is entitled to receive the purse.
He is also followed on the train by a millionaire member of the sporting club who maps out the route for him and sees that he faithfully carries out every stipulation of the wager. From here he left for Duluth.

MESIC MUST STAND TRIAL

He Is Taken To Europe To Answer To Murder Charge.

Luka Mesic, the Hungarian who was arrested at a logging camp near Hills five weeks ago, on a murder charge, must stand trial for the crime in Germany.

Deputy United States Marshals G.
Rankl and Chas. Reinhardt left Milwaukee for New York Sunday with Mesic and from there the man will sail for Europe. The captain of the boat will have charge of Mesic until German authorities take him at the port of destination.

Mesic is alleged to have killed a fellow gambler who had won considerable money from him during a card game in a public gaming house.

GOOD BERRY CROP

Prospects seem favorable for a bumper crop of raspberries and blueberries in Oneida county this year.
The weather conditions have been suitable for the growing of these fruits and unlike former years there were no late frosts to injure the output. It is anticipated that berry pickers will invade the woods in large numbers when the season arrives.

BOOST FOR A BAND

Plenty Of Talent Here For Strong Mu- sical Organization.

So pleased was the public with the music furnished by the band during the celebration Tuesday that many have asked the question "Why does the city not have a permanent organization of this kind?"

Rhinelander has sufficient musical talent to form a first class band. All that is needed is a director and such a man could be engaged at a reasonable expense. It has been suggested that the business men and other interested citizens of the city donate what they can toward securing a leader and start the work of assembling a band at once. Then for a series of delightful evening concerts.

FIREWORKS CAUSE BLAZE IN STORE

Sun Ignites Explosives at Nelson's Grocery and Small Fire Follows

The intense heat of the sun beating down upon fire crackers in the display window of S. D. Nelson's grocery store on Brown street is believed to have been responsible for a fire which caused a small loss to the store, Sunday afternoon.

The blaze was observed by passers-by as soon as it started and the alarm was immediately sounded. The quick arrival of hose company No. 1 prevented the fire from gaining headway and most of the damage was confined to the window and front of the building. As the explosives in the window became ignited the noise was deafening and resembled the annual 4th of July fire cracker demonstrations given at the Chinese laundry.

Mr. Nelson is unable to state at this time regarding the extent of his loss as the damage has not yet been adjusted.

LIGHTNING STRIKES BARN

Bolt Does Damage to Structure at 415 N. Stevens Street

During the storm Tuesday night lightning struck the barn of M. E.
Regal, 415 North Stevens street, and did considerable damage.

The bolt ripped off all the shingles in a line on a whole side to the peak of the building then went down thru the inside, split the moulding and slivered a heavy timber. It left the building about four feet from the basement, tearing up the ground as the lightning scratched by chickens.

ROBBERY AT WOODRUFF

$200 Is Stolen From Matt Reed's Store Last Evening

Matt Reed's confectionery store at Woodruff was entered by robbers last night and over $200 in cash stolen.
There is no clue to the identity of the thieves.

Harry A. Patterson and Fred Hamburg are in the county jail awaiting trial on the charge of burglary. The men are accused of entering the Rod-er beer house at Minocqua Monday and removing several bottles of beer.

JULY 4TH VICTIM

McIntyre Boy Is Hurt By Fire Cracker Tuesday Afternoon

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. D.
McIntyre, residents of Mason street,
was burned about the eyes while discharging fire crackers Tuesday. It was at first believed that he was in danger of losing his sight, but late reports state that he is resting easily and no serious consequences are anticipated.

Miss Lola Billings is assisting in the office of Paul Browne, during the absence of Miss Rogers.

MILWAUKEE LOSES TWO; TAKES ONE

Rhinelander and Hartmans Play Three Exciting Games in This City

Rhinelander took two out of three from the Hartmans of Milwaukee winning Sunday's game 3 to 2, this score being reversed on Monday, and taking the deciding game Tuesday 6 to 0.

Sunday's game found Henry, the new addition to the pitching staff, in the box for Rhinelander. He let the beer town boys down with seven scattered hits and showed himself master of ceremonies at all times.

The Hartmans scored one in the first on a hit by Lauer, who was forced at second on Thompson's bunt. He completed the circuit aided by Ramsey's tum chuck, to the pitcher and Creamer's boot of Hy-ack's grounder. They scored again in the fifth on a hit by Neurtz, a sacrifice by Kendall and a single by Lauer and Schlick. Rhinelander evened matters in their half of the fifth.
Jastrum led off with a single, and Ramsey beat out his bunt. Jastrum was caught at home on an attempted double steal. Ramsey went to third when Schlick booted Creamer's grounder and scored on Henry's out.
Poller scored "Rep" with a three-base knock-Wecker struck out, leaving "Spike" stranded on the third corner.

The locals won out in the sixth,
Clifford leading off with a three bagger and scoring the winning run when Kendall fumbled Post's roller.

Score by Innings

Rhinelander—0 0 0 0 2 1 0 0 0—3 5 2

Monday's Game

The Hartmans annexed the second game of the series 3 to 2, in a game where errors figured in the getting of all the runs.

Belliel's boys scored in the second.
Kuehn was thrown out by the pitcher; Jastrum walked to first; was forced on Ramsey's hit. Creamer singled to left and both scored when Bruett muffed Hutchinson's sky scraper.

Milwaukee scored one in the sixth, Lauer leading off with a single, taking second on Thompson's bunt.
Schlick was given a base on balls and both men moved up a notch when Wecker kicked Hyack's grounder. Lauer scored while Jastrum was throwing out Oellig and Hartle ended the inning by striking out. In the next session the Hartmans won out.

Neurtz was walked, DeVoe scratched a single over third, and both men advanced on Post's chuck to center.
Neurtz scored when Jastrum allowed Clifford's throw to bounce through "Hutch" uncorked a wild pitch, letting DeVoe score the winning run.
Rhinelander secured but two hits off DeVoe, a couple of 3 sackers by Post and Kuehn. Hutchinson, although a trifle wild, pitched good ball and with good support would have won his game 2 to 0.

Score by Innings

Tuesday's Game

Belliel's Kids celebrated the Fourth by taking the deciding game of the series, 6 to 0. Before one of the large-est crowds that ever witnessed a game at the local lot.

Henry, the pride of Tomah, was again on the mound for the locals, giving the most classy piece of heavy Rhinelander fans have ever seen.
Not a man from the state metropolis was able to reach the initial bag.
He struck out nine of the visitors and fielded his position like a big leaguer. He was backed up in faultless style by his eight associates, both in the field and at bat.
Post and Kuehn were the hitting kids, "Cy" procuring a triple and double, while "Bunny" puffed up three singles and a sacrifice fly out of

"FIGHTING DICK" WINS

Jack Shelly Proves Easy For The Local Boy.

"Fighting Dick" Creamer, the little whirlwind boxer of this city, won the second round from Jack Shelly, the Arizona "wonder" at the Grand Opera House, Monday night.
It could scarcely be called a boxing match as the local lad had everything his own way from the first sound of the gong and handled his opponent like a kitten would toy with a mouse.
At the end of the first round, Shelly was completely dazed and long before time was up in the second he had succumbed to Dick's love taps. When handed the long end of the purse, Dick said, "It's cruel of me to take this boys." A fair sized crowd witnessed the show. Dr. Garner referred.

LITTLE BOY HURT BY AUTOMOBILE

Lynas Kelly Is Struck by Dr. Hinman's Car and Receives Scalp Wound

Lynas Kelly, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kelly of Antigo, was injured, though not seriously, yesterday afternoon, when struck by Dr. F. L. Hinman's automobile.

The accident occurred in front of the Hub clothing store on Brown St.
The little boy was walking across the street when the machine, which was being driven by Mr. Hinman, swung close in toward the curb and hit the child while he was attempting to run back toward the sidewalk. The car, according to eye witnesses, was traveling at moderate speed and under the circumstances the mishap was almost unavoidable. The boy received a scalp wound in the back of the head which required several stitches to close. He is at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. E. McRae, where his mother is staying.

GRADUATION AT TRAINING SCHOOL

Six Young Ladies Receive Their Diplomas Last Thursday Evening

Thursday evening the first commencement exercises of the Oneida County Training school took place at the Congregational church. Music was furnished by a trio of instrumentalists from the Military Orchestra.
The address was delivered by Prof.
M. V. O'Shea, who spoke very appropriately on "Making the Most of Life". These exercises marked an epoch in the educational affairs of the county. The high schools have furnished most of the teachers of this county in the past. These teachers had a good academic education, but they had no professional training. The six young ladies who were graduated are the first professionally trained teachers of the schools of Oneida county. The county has a right to expect, and it will surely get, exceptionally good services from them.

The County Training school will undoubtedly grow in importance and be stronger and larger next year.
Superintendent Lowell in presenting the diplomas gave a glowing account of the rapid growth of the Training School.

The banquet Friday night at the Rapids House was the closing event of the year. Principal Dresden acted as toastmaster; Arthur Taylor
A. W. Brown and F. A. Lowell responded to calls on the bright prospects of Oneida County Training School.

WEATHER IS BAD FOR CELEBRATION

Rain Interferes With 4th Pro- gram—Militia Boys Play In Hard Luck

Rain on July 4th interfered to a serious extent with the big celebration in this city that had been planned by Company L. That the elements should so relentlessly mar
the pleasures of the glorious occasion came as a disappointment to everyone although the crowds viewed the situation in a logical light and managed to keep good natured.
Under the circumstances it was possible to carry out only a part of the program. From 6:30 a. m. until after 1 p. m. intermittent showers continued, forcing the downtown throng to seek the shelter of buildings and convenient door ways.

The day's exercises commenced with a grand salute of 100 guns at sunrise and the noise could be heard throughout the city, awakening nearly the entire population from their slumbers. Despite the rain the street parade in the forenoon was an attractive and pleasing feature.
The procession consisted of the military band, militia boys, Sons of Norway, city officials and G. A. R. veterans in carriages and several floats. After the parade foot and bicycle races were held on Brown street, but owing to the wet ground it was impossible to give all the events scheduled.

In the afternoon the weather became pleasant and the crowds congregated at the fair grounds to witness the base ball game between the Milwaukee Hartmans and Rhinelander. The condition of the track was such that no races could be given.

Several interesting features took place in the evening, chief among which were the water fight between two companies of firemen, the exhibition drill by Co. L. and band concert. The display of fireworks on the Davenport street bridge was brought to a sudden end by the accidental discharge of all the pieces at one time. The explosion was due to scattering sparks from a huge spinning wheel. Although the boxes containing the fireworks were thoroughly covered through some unknown reason the pieces became inflamed. Albert Hine who was assisting in conducting the display was burned about the face, but not seriously. The unfortunate occurrence was deeply regretted and expressions of sympathy were heard on all sides for the Company boys who seemed to be playing in hard luck.

The closing event of the day was the military ball at the Armory. The large hall was filled with dancers and all enjoyed the affair immensely. It was one of the best attended and most brilliant functions ever given in the building. The success of this undertaking made the members of the Company feel as though they had been in a measure repaid for the misfortune which had attended their efforts throughout the day.

CLOSE RESORTS.

Sheriff Shuts Up Two Houses Of Que- stionable Repute.

Two well known resorts of ill repute, one of which is located just west of the city and the other at Lake Julia, were closed by the sheriff's force Wednesday. The proprietors and inmates of the house had vacated the premises before the officers arrived and it is thought that they have left this part of the country.

This is a step in the right direction toward purifying the moral atmosphere of the community.

SHOW MEN ON OUTING

A number of New York, Chicago and St. Louis theatrical managers are expected at the Mercer lakes next week for a 2 weeks outing. The pa-ty will travel in a special train of Pullmans.

LAST OF ARBOR VITAE

Yawkey-Bissell Company Soon To Close Saw Mill There

Reports state that within less than one year Arbor Vitae will cease to be a lumber manufacturing village and that the place will pass out of existence. The Yawkey-Bissell Lumber Company, so it is said, has about completed its cut in the area and will close its big saw mill at the end of the present season. It is estimated that during the last eighteen years fifty million feet of lumber has been sawed at Arbor Vitae.

Many former residents of Rhinelander are living at that village and they will no doubt return here when the place is no more.

PAPER PLANT HAS LOSS FROM FIRE

Blaze Starts From Hot Box On Machine—City Water Service Useless

Fire which originated from a hot box on one of the big paper machines did damage amounting to a few thousand dollars at the plant of the Rhinelander Paper company
early Friday evening.

The overheated box caused much waste material under the machine to become afire and almost within an instant the flames shot toward the roof. The two large ventilating cupalas were soon ablaze and for a time it looked as though the fire would result very seriously.

Owing to the slight pressure supplied by the city water system the firemen were handicapped in coping with the situation. Had it not been for the force furnished by the paper mill pumps and the successful working of the automatic sprinkles in the plant it is doubtful if the flames could have been checked.
There was much condemnation of the poor city water service during the fire and the truth of the article in last week's New North on this subject dawned upon the people. It was a clear illustration of the fact that something toward remedying this condition must be done without delay.
The fire caused operations at the mill to close for only a short time and the damage has now practically been repaired.

BANQUET ISSIE COHEN

Big Four Club Holds Party For A Popular Member

Issie Cohen's brother members of the Big Four Club tendered him with a reception and banquet at the K. of P hall Thursday evening. A lively time was had by all present and the occasion was one which will long be remembered. During the program Issie was presented with a costly travelling bag as a mark of the high esteem in which he was regarded by the club. He was overcome by the gift and it was several minutes before he could command words to express his appreciation.

Issie has always taken an active part in all the Big Four doings and the success of the organization is largely due to his efforts.

F. E. Parker sprung a little surprise on the boys by saying that all expense of the evening's entertainment would be borne by him. Some class to Frank!

BOLEAU GETS SUIT

John Boleau, 1347 Minola street, received the suit of clothes given away at Mendelson's store, Saturday. It was a high grade suit and Mr. Boleau's friends envy his good fortune.
The store will give an overcoat away
next Saturday.

The big sale at Mendelson's continues and is attracting large throngs of bargain seekers.

IMPORTANT:

Again we find that our stock of high grade and seasonable merchandise is too large. It seems we have anticipated greater business and have bought too much goods. We must reduce our stock by many thousands of dollars and we will sacrifice all our Ladies' ready to wear goods, dress goods, wash goods, notions, ribbons, embroideries, trimmings, hosiery, underwear, rugs, carpets, lace curtains, floor oil cloth, Linoleums, window shades, also ladies' misses' and children's fine shoes, oxfords, slippers, etc.

We realize that we are to take a loss, and from past experience we know that our first loss is our best loss, so now we will cut prices on all our goods, former prices are not to be considered. The stock must be adjusted to meet conditions. Prices will be cut so low that it will be the lowest ever heard of in Rhinelander and vicinity. Come expecting the very best values the very lowest prices and the highest grade of merchandise. You can buy staples as well as fancy colors.

We want you not to confine this sale with other so called sales. For this is a bonafide sale of such magnitude as to be remembered in the annals of Rhinelander Merchandise. The prices quoted here are only a few samples of the way the prices run throughout the store. This will be the best chance you will have to lay in your needs. Don't miss a single day of this sale. Drop everything and come.

A colossal bargain event unparalleled in Wisconsin Mercantile history. A sweeping merciless and drastic slaughter of the finest stock of merchandise in Oneida Co.

SHOOTING AT EAGLE RIVER

Fugitive, Italians Badly Wound Sheriff Radcliffe and Deputy Hanson

Philip Roberts and Tony Imperio, two Italians who are wanted by the Oneida county officers, are alleged to have shot Sheriff Radcliffe and Deputy Sheriff Hanson of Vilas county at Eagle River at 4 o'clock P. M. to-day.

The officers were trying to arrest the men when the shooting occurred. It is reported from Eagle River that Sheriff Radcliffe will not live.

Imperio and Roberts were inmates of the resort at Lake Julia which was closed yesterday by Sheriff Crofoot. Learning from some source that the house was about to be raided the two men left at once to escape arrest. They are known to have went from this city to Eagle River in an automobile.

After the shooting the men are reported to have escaped into the woods. A posse was at once organized to hunt them down. In the event of their capture lynching is feared.

FAIRY TALES FOR CHILDREN

Lady Tennant Argues Little Ones Need Sustenance for Their Thoughts and Fancies.

"Let children have fairy tales," urges Lady Tennant in the London Times, on the ground that early childhood does not need instruction so much as shape and sustenance for its own thoughts and fancies. It is through the old stories and the works of great writers, she thinks, that children can best be put in possession of the freedom, which, in the words of Jean Paul Richter, makes them citizens of the divine city of Romance. Reading aloud to children she regards as of far-reaching importance.

There is the instance of a child of five years who has been hearing with absorbing interest the story of Joseph and his brethren. Some days after he was telling his mother a story and with glowing eyes he said: "And dreaming, I saw a king's throne, and the king's servant standing beside the throne." It was not difficult to trace the source of the impression that had led him to clothe his thoughts in such language.

Let the children have the old books read to them. There will come days when they will prefer to read an excellent modern detective story, or to buy a magazine. We must remind ourselves that possibly they would be prigs if they did otherwise; nor should we, I think, on any account check reading of any kind. But in the early days when they are still being read to, when they are so young that it lies in the mother's choice what they shall be hearing, then, I say, let them hear the old books, or, if the choice fall on books of later date, let them be the works of great writers.

GOT THE MEAT HE DEMANDED

Grumpy Man Wanted Restaurant Window Sample and the Paint on It Blistered.

Stepping into a small restaurant, a grumpy old man demanded of the waiter a certain piece of meat he had in the show window.

"But," said the waiter, "we—"

"No buts," replied the old man. "You bring me what I ask for, or I won't get anything here at all."

Better than lose a customer the waiter did as he was told, and getting the piece of meat, took it back to be cooked.

After a long wait the meat was brought to the customer, who, instead of thanking the waiter, said: "Look here, you man, what is the matter with this meat?"

"Nothing is the matter with it, sir, except that the paint on it has formed a few blisters from the heat."

"Why, what do you mean by that?" asked the old man.

"Simply this," replied the waiter. "Those pieces of meat you saw in the window were not made to eat. They were made for advertising purposes, but you insisted, sir, upon having one of 'em."

ARIZONA ROAD RUNNER.

A Sociable Bird That is Said to Hate a Rattlesnake.

The road runner is one of Arizona's distinctive ornithological institutions. It is a long legged, long billed bird, slender of build and standing some ten inches high. It is not often seen in the farming districts, but is a familiar sight on the desert.

It has gained the name of road runner from its habit of taking the road in front of travelers be they on horseback or wheeled conveyance, and running swiftly or slowly, as occasion requires, showing off its neighborly spirit and running qualities. It is not uncommon for it to keep in company of the traveler for several hundred yards.

No resident of Arizona would kill a road runner. It is firmly believed that the bird is the deadly enemy of that monster of the desert, the rattlesnake. We don't know whether any of our readers ever saw a road runner kill a rattlesnake. If there is an authentic story of such a thing we would be glad to publish it. But the accepted tradition is that the road runner and the rattlesnake are deadly enemies and that the rattlesnake fears the road runner beyond anything else.

It is told that the bird drives the snake into a coil and then, darting around the serpent like lightning, pecks it to death. Whatever truth there may be in the stories of the road runner's accomplishments as a disciple of St. Patrick, it deserves the friendly protection it receives. Its quaint sociability is always a diversion for the lonesome desert traveler. —Arizona Republican.

BRAINY BABY.

John Stuart Mill Was a Genius at Three Years of Age.

At three years of age John Stuart Mill began the study of Greek, with "arithmetic as an evening relaxation." At eight he began Latin, Euclid and algebra and had to act as tutor to the younger children. He was a stern and efficient tutor.

At twelve he began scholastic logic and political economy—the latter his main lifework.

At fourteen, while paying a long visit to Sir Samuel Bentham in southern France, he learned French as a relaxation from studying two or three hours before breakfast, five hours between breakfast and dinner and two or three in the evening. Being for the time master of his own hours and not subject to a stern father, he took lessons also in his spare hours in music, singing, dancing, fencing and riding, but never became proficient.

At sixteen Mill could speak in debate with adults with ease and freedom. At eighteen he contributed to the Westminster Review. At twenty-one he was made assistant in the India office and received a large salary for those days.

But Mill was bald at twenty-two. He did not marry until he was forty-five. He himself said: "I never was a boy. It is better to let nature have its own way."

The Green Flash of Sunset.

One of the most rarely witnessed of natural phenomena, but one that has often been discussed at scientific meetings and that always awakens wonder when seen, is the so called "green flash" occasionally visible at the moment of the disappearance of the sun behind a clear horizon. The observer's eye must be fixed upon the rim of the sun as it disappears in order to catch the phenomenon. One authority tells us that he has seen the green flash, although rarely, at the instant of the setting of a bright star. Among the explanations offered is one based upon the optical principle of complementary colors. If one looks at the sun and then closes the eyes a green disk will be perceived. A sensitive eye might be similarly affected by a brilliant star. —New York Herald.

He Took the Blame.

"The guilty man always gives himself away," said a detective, "for, like the chap who bought the forty-cent bathing suit, he can't hide his guilty conscience. The chap I have in mind entered the water at Atlantic City in a forty-cent suit of blue flannel. As he splashed about he was joined by a girl friend. The girl flashed her bright eyes over the tumbling expanse of sea and then with a sigh of delight she said:

"Isn't the water blue today?"

"It's shameful," said the man, with a hot blush; "it's perfectly shameful how this cheap bathing flannel runs!"

How to Look Pleasant.

By her gracious and cordial manner the wife of a western senator has long charmed those so fortunate as to attend her delightful "functions."

On one such occasion a close friend was alluding to the hostess' graceful method of making every one feel at home. "How on earth do you manage to do it?" the friend asked.

"Oh, it's easy enough," replied the woman with the engaging manner. "As each guest approaches to shake hands I just pretend to myself that the person I am going to speak to is some one I like." —Chicago Record-Herald.

Up the Rhine.

Mrs. Robinson—And were you up the Rhine? Miss Nurich just returned from a European trip—I should think so, right to the very top. What a splendid view there is from the summit!

Duty and today are ours; results and felicity belong to God.—Morroe Green.

OLD ENGLISH BOXERS.

Hired to Prevent Trouble at George IV's Coronation.

Boxing was introduced into England in the earlier part of the eighteenth century. Its first practitioner being John Broughton, who kept a booth for exhibitions in Tottenham Court road, London, and rules were drawn up Aug. 10, 1713. The rogue was due to the decline of sword combat exhibitions in the reign of George I. Broughton himself was the first who stood in the position of champion, a distinction which he held for eighteen years, but eventually he was knocked out by a butcher named Slack. Broughton was a great pet of the Duke of Cumberland, who took the pugilist with him to Berlin, when he declared himself ready to take on the entire regiment of grenadier guards there "if he were only allowed a breakfast between each two battles."

The English fighter Tom Cribb once secured a very remarkable engagement. Just before the coronation of George IV, certain sympathizers with Queen Caroline bragged that on the day of the coronation they would make matters warm in the neighborhood of Westminster abbey, and this reached the ears of the earl marshal. That high functionary sought an interview with the pugilist "Gentleman" Jackson, who taught Lord Byron to box.

Jackson got together some two dozen bruisers. Besides Cribb, the band included John Gully, in turn fighting man, racing man, colliery proprietor and member of parliament. They were attired as king's pages and gathered about the abbey doors. There was no trouble.—Chicago News.

REINDEER IN LAPLAND.

They Furnish the People With Shelter, Clothing and Food.

Some people have said that the reindeer of the northern regions is to the inhabitants of those countries what the horse, cow and sheep together are to the dwellers in southern lands, and very probably they are right. What would the Laplander be were he deprived of his favorite? How could he travel without his pair of reindeer harnessed to his sledges?

The reindeer has large black hoofs, behind which are false or secondary hoofs; the result is that when running they make a clattering sound, which may be heard a good distance away. The reindeer has much endurance and takes a long journey without seeming tired, though it is only about four and a half feet in height and not very strong. Its horns are long and slender, with branched, rounded antlers, but they are not much used in combat like those of some other deer.

The largest reindeer are found where the weather is coldest, and their color is lighter. Usually it is brown and white, but in the case of old animals the hair is sometimes quite white. From the skin of the reindeer the Laplanders get not only their clothes, but also bedding and tents; the milk is drunk and made into cheese and the flesh is also good to eat, the tongue and haunches being particularly liked. Pemican, an important article of food, is made by pouring fat over the pounded meat and mixing them well together.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Leech as a Barometer.

A leech confined in a glass jar of water will prove an excellent weather prophet. If the weather is to continue fine the leech lies motionless at the bottom of the jar and rolled together in a spiral form. If it is to rain, either before or after noon, it is found to have crept up to the top of its lodging and there remains till the weather is settled. If we are to have wind the prisoner wriggles through his limpid habitation with amazing swiftness and seldom rests till it begins to blow hard. If a remarkable storm of thunder and rain is to succeed the leech gives itself up to violent throes and convulsive motions. In frost, as in clear summer weather, it lies constantly at the bottom, and in snow, as in rainy weather, it pitches its dwelling on the very mouth of the jar.

African Grosbeaks.

The social grosbeaks of South Africa live in large societies. They select a tree of considerable size and literally cover it with a grass roof, under which their common dwelling is constructed. The roof serves the double purpose of keeping off the heat and the rain, and 400 or 500 pairs of birds are known to have the same shelter. The nests in this aerial dwelling are built in regular streets and closely resemble rows of tenement houses.

A Financial Genius.

"He is a financial genius. In a restaurant the other day he spilled a cup of coffee over a fellow's gray trousers."

"And got out of paying for them, eh?"

"Why, he talked the other fellow into paying for the coffee."

The Man Behind the Message.

The value of a thing depends largely upon who says it. Words may be bullets, but character must be the powder at the back of them to give them projectile force. The man behind the message is as important as the man behind the gun.

CUPID CAPTURES 'GENE'

E. S. Shepherd Takes Green Bay Lady For His Bride

Eugene S. Shepard of this city and Mrs. Carrie Stevenson of Green Bay were united in marriage at Green Bay Saturday. Mr. Shepard and his bride arrived at "The Pines" Sunday morning and have since been kept busy receiving congratulations.

Mr. Shepard is one of the city's most prominent residents and has a host of friends not only in Rhinelander but throughout the state. Although he faced and successfully captured the ferocious Hodag, he was apparently not brave enough to withstand the attacks of Cupid. His wife, although a stranger in the city, is a lady of pleasing personality and favorably impresses all who have met her.

'Gene' has promised to celebrate his wedding with a green corn dance which will be given as soon as the corn is ripe. He will favor all his friends with invitations.

SOO TRAIN KILLS MAN.

The body of a Polish laborer was found lying by the Soo track near Armstrong Creek, Thursday. It is thought that he fell asleep near the rails and a passing train struck him, crushing his skull. Five parts of the man were taken into custody as they walked into Carvour and held as witnesses at the inquest.

MARRIED AT PARSONAGE

Miss Mattie Shafer and William Marble were joined in matrimony Monday by Rev. Clemens at the M. E. parsonage. The bride's mother was the only attendant. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Marble will make Rhinelander their residence.

The Military orchestra furnished music for a dance at Three Lakes Tuesday.

F. A. Hildebrand was at Gagen, Friday to prepare for burial the body of Wm. Locy.

Mrs. Thos. Wight is entertaining her sister, Miss Gusta Wagner, and niece, Miss Edith Pireau, of Green Bay.

Henry Wubker Jr. opened his new saloon in the town of Newbold, Saturday. The place has been refitted throughout and Mr. Wubker will endeavor to conduct the business in a first class manner.

Freshening Shoe Blacking.
It is obvious that it may not be a discovery, but it was a long time before I thought of it: The moistening of my shoe blacking (paste) with a few drops of kerosene. I used to throw the blacking away when it began to get dry, until this occurred to me.—Good Housekeeping Magazine.

Modern Dining.

No one now of course waits. The old trope is as dead as death. A strange shuffie in which your shoulders shuffle too, you cling sardine fashion to your partner, who pushes you along like a perambulator, and never lift your feet off the ground with a sort of spasmodic canter own held and over action, is the "dance" if you please, at the moment.—The Tatler.

ADVERTISING RATES.

DWELAY ADVERTISEMENTS.—For a contract of three months or more, ten cents per column inch will be charged for each insertion. For a shorter time higher rates will be charged.

In addition to the above, all composition and display type of three minutes or more, will be charged at the rate of thirty cents per hour.

READING NOTICES.

Reading Notices will be charged at two cents per line for the first insertion and five cents per line for each subsequent insertion. All Notices will be charged at regular rates except notices of church service.

Paid entertainments or Churches will be charged at half rates.

The offer by the plate houses of free plate matter exploiting the great deeds of Governor Harmon has had its evil effects upon the public and now the special interests are studying what should be done next. Unfortunately they are always so zealous that they over do their work.

MORE PRAISE FOR "BOB"

It is the duty of every good American citizen to read the article in The Saturday Evening Post of July 8th on the great work of Senator LaFollette. The Post tells of the wonderful work of LaFollette as governor of Wisconsin and then it says: "In Washington, LaFollette is seeking to do as United States Senator what he did in Wisconsin as Governor. And if he were elected President of the United States he would endeavor to do for the country at large what he succeeded in doing for the commonwealth in which he was born and raised."

BETTER FIRE PROTECTION

At the regular meeting of the council last evening, the city fathers fully realizing the danger of inadequate fire protection authorized and instructed A. D. Sutton, superintendent of water works, and the committee on water works, Henry Roepcke, C. P. Crosby and John Strangstad to purchase and install all necessary pumps and apparatus that in the judgment of the committee is necessary to provide sufficient water pressure for the city. Although it looked last Friday evening as though it would be a case of locking the barn after the horse is stolen, we are greatly encouraged at the recent action of the council.

NOTICE

To whom it may concern:
By order of the City Council the following Section is ordered published:

Sec. 1557m Laws of Wisconsin 1909.

Minor; misrepresentation to procure; penalty.

Section 1557m. Any minor over eighteen years of age who shall wilfully represent that he is of age for the purpose of asking for or receiving any strong, spirituous or malt liquors from any keeper of any saloon shop or place of any name whatsoever for the sale of strong, spirituous or malt liquors except in cases authorized by law, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one dollar, nor more than fifteen dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed ten days or by such fine and imprisonment. —§6-20.

BUTOLPH-ALBRANT

A Man In Wolf's Clothing

By DONALD CHAMBERLIN.
Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.

Leaving Gibraltar, I crossed the strait and landed in Tangier. The transition from an English army post to an Arab town is about as marked as any that can be made. At Tangier one finds about him the swarthy native, wearing the barasin, a long white cotton garment—probably the toga of the Romans, who once conquered his country, banded down to the present day—and of a different religion from what he has left on the other side of the strait. If his system of superstition can be called religion.

At Tangier I outfitted for a trip to the great desert of Sahara, aiming to penetrate as far south as Tuat, thence northward to Tripoli. I had several camels and a dozen men as servants and guards.

There is no lonelier place on the face of the earth than the desert, though I will admit that on a starlight night there is a solemn grandeur about it. When we were not moving at night instead of the day I established a guard about my camp just as if we were an army, marching through an enemy's country, and, strange to say, this vigilance was simply exercised against thieves and robbers. The ingenuity of these lying rascals is remarkable. They are natural spies. They would come into our camp in the most friendly way for the purpose of theft; if they could get their hands on anything, and if not, to gather information as to how they could rob us at another time.

One day a band of Tuaregs, as they are called, came into camp for the purpose, I felt sure, of observation. They numbered about as many as we, but as my force was under the command of a European and well armed they would not think of attacking us. That same night my sentinel—I put one man on guard—was shot dead. I heard the distant crack of a rifle and, calling several of my men, hurried them out in different directions, after the murderer. I went myself, but saw nothing, only the great sandy billows. One of my men reported seeing a wolf running away, but no human being was found.

The next day we buried the murdered man and proceeded on our way. That night while every one except the man on guard was asleep, there was another crack, and a sentry was killed. Again I deployed my men, proceeding farther than before, but not even a wild animal was found. There was ample opportunity for any one to hide among the sand billows, and by covering himself with his barasin he was not likely to be seen. At any rate, we were obliged to give up the search.

I surmised that the party of Tuaregs who had visited our camp were hovering near us, intending to pick off a man every night till our number should be so reduced as to render us an easy prey. Then our camels, our tents, our supplies, our arms and ammunition would fall into their hands. The outfit would be a fortune to them. I concluded that I must stop, their game at all hazards.

The next night I planted a tent pole in the ground, fixed a crosspiece to it, and tying some esparto grass about the two, I made the body of a manikin. I covered with a barasin and put a fer on the head. Thus I had a dummy sentinel who might be shot to pieces without being hurt. I had taken care to fix our camp on the edge of an oasis, where I could eliminate the approach in one direction, and note a convenient place of concealment—a hole in the ground—a few hundred yards from the camp. Soon after dark, taking a rifle, I went out to my hole. The moon gave sufficient light for me to see any one approach the camp.

I had a long wait, for it was near dawn before I saw any living thing, and then nothing more than a wolf prowling around in search of something to eat. But, having nothing else to watch, I watched the wolf. He would stop here and there and dig up the sand, then go on, with his nose to the ground, to another spot and dig again. All the while he was hearing the camp. Presently he stopped and after turning in a circle lay down. He was lost to view, but I kept my eyes fixed on the spot where I had last seen him.

Suddenly at a point still nearer the camp I saw a flash, heard a crack, and the wolf, raising himself on his hind legs, ran away like a deer.

I had a good view of the creature's silhouette against a line of dunes, and I am a good shot on the wing. Raising my rifle, I achieved an excellent aim and fired. The wolf pitched forward and lay still.

I had instructed my foreman, Hamet, that if he heard a shot to wake the men and if he heard a second one to bring them out. In a few minutes they came, running toward me. I called to them and joined them. Then we went to the body of the wolf I had slain. We found him to be one of the Tuaregs who had come into our camp a few days before, a villainous looking rascal, who seemed to be a sort of thief among them.

We scoured the country for awhile, but found no one else. Trust an Arab for finding a place of concealment. I took similar precautions the next night and, for several nights, but we were not troubled again in the same way. Doubtless the robbers, knowing that we had got on to their game, gave it up.

THE WRONG BOOK

By ESTHER VANDEVEER.
Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.

It was in the olden time, when travel was slow, that I crossed the river westward from the Missouri river by wagon train system. I was a young man then and had some money which I had invested in the stock of a mining company on Clear Creek, about twenty miles west of Denver. News came that those operating the mine had struck a rich vein of ore, and I concluded to go out and look after my interests.

So I joined a wagon train at Kansas City, consisting of two wagons. The owner, John Scarsdale, was taking his family out to Denver to settle there. They consisted of his wife, his son, Henry, twenty years old, and his daughter, Amelia. Henry had taken a course of medicine at an eastern university and was going to put out his shingle in Denver.

There is nothing like being thrown with a girl constantly, and not meeting other girls to make a man fall in love. And I suppose it is the same with a girl in reference to the man. At any rate, we had been on the road but a few days when I began to consider Amelia attractive.

Dr. Henry Scarsdale had a whole library of medical books with him, and studied, whenever we were in camp. He was an enthusiast in his profession. He became a celebrated physician afterward, but at that time he was simply at the beginning of his career and always yearning for some one to fall ill that he might apply his knowledge.

Unfortunately I was destined to need his attention. My heart would get to beating rapidly at the slightest provocation. The young doctor on hearing of my trouble unpacked a box of books that he had intended not to open till he reached Denver, got out a volume on heart disease, ran his eye over the index till he came to "palpitation" and familiarized himself with my case. Then he improvised a stethoscope, placed it against my chest over my heart, listened and looked serious.

I knew by that look that I was doomed. He told me that I must not consider my case hopeless, which I understood to mean that it was hopeless, especially since he told me that I might live quite awhile. But the next morning, feeling more hopeful, I told the doctor that I thought he might have been mistaken, whereupon he said very decidedly that I would find out. If I lived to reach Denver it would be more than he expected.

This broke me all up again, and I continued to decline during the rest of the journey. I couldn't make the slightest motion without my heart beating like a trip hammer. I lost flesh and was so near running down that by the time we were approaching Denver a reclining place was made for me in one of the wagons.

I conceived a great respect for the medical diagnosing power of the young doctor. He had told me that if I reached Denver alive I would do well, and the nearer we got to the town the more rapidly my heart beat. It occurred to me that he didn't really expect me to live even so long as that. At any rate I made up my mind I would not.

When within ten miles of Denver, in camp one evening I sent for Amelia Scarsdale and told her that being at the point of death, I would have no further use for worldly wealth and handed her my mining shares that I had transferred to her. I refrained from telling her that I loved her, thinking that, being doomed, it would be better for her that I should keep my secret. Amelia was certainly very grateful, tried to comfort me and declared that if I lived she would re-transfer the shares to me. To this I replied that I had given up all hope; that when her brother told me it was not likely I would live to enter Denver I had doubted his power of diagnosis, but I had been getting worse ever since, and I knew now that he was right.

While we were talking Dr. Scarsdale came to the wagon and said to me:

"I fear I have made a mistake in your case. I got hold of a book on diseases of the heart. I have today been reading one on indigestion, and I shouldn't be surprised if your heart trouble is due to that cause."

"You say you fear you have made a mistake," I remarked.

"Yes."

"Well, I fear you haven't."

"Diet for a few days, and I have some peptonic pills I'll give you."

I took the doctor's pills, and the fact that he had got hold of the wrong book concerning my case convinced me that he was not infallible. My mind drifted in another channel, my heart stopped beating so rapidly, and I was a new man.

Amelia insisted on returning, the mining shares, which made me feel very cheap. I went up in the mountains later a very rich man. I was much surprised that Amelia did not look so beautiful among other women as she had seemed on the alkali plains. Indeed, I thought her anything but beautiful. She imparted to me the fact that for two years she had had a lover in Denver and that she was to be married in a few days.

Here was my chance. I gave her a wedding present consisting of enough of the mining shares I owned to make her independent for life.

My medical experience convinced me of the power of mind over matter.

Merrill

The keys of the Lew Scott Free Public Library have been turned over by the builders to the library board. Furniture will be installed in the building within a few days and the institution will be opened to the public. It is a beautiful structure and was erected at a cost of $20,000.

Iron River

John Hefstedt, a farmer of Poplar, this county, was shot and killed and his corpse thrown into a well. James Dager, a homesteader who had recently taken up a tract of land in a deserted cabin near Hefstedt's farm, is believed responsible for the crime. Officers are scouring the country for the suspect.

Marinette

Waiving preliminary examination Edward Martin, night watchman at the Wright cedar mill, was bound over to circuit court for trial on the charge of wrecking the Paul road passenger train in this city. His bonds were fixed at $5000 and being unable to furnish this amount he was remanded to the county jail. The authorities are positive that Martin is the man who caused the wreck by placing obstructions on the track and state that when the case comes to trial they will produce some strong evidence against the man.

Washburn

Many outside fruit growers are purchasing lands in this county for the purpose of starting fruit farms. The soil here is well adapted for the production of fruits, especially berries and apples and much interest has lately been shown in their cultivation here. It is stated that even the fruit belt of the west does not offer the inducements to the grower that the lands of this section do.

Ralph Bentley of Deerbrook, this county, met his death at Chicago by sleeping in a room with the gas jet open. William Kennenbergs, of the same place, a bed partner of Bentley's, was also overcome but revived at the hospital. Bentley was 18 years of age and went to Chicago to attend an auto school.

Merrill

Mulberry drill team, No. 459, carried off many honors at the national M. W. A. convention at Buffalo, N. Y. Capt. Almsworth asserts that his team ranked among the fifteen best teams at the gathering. The organization received a standing of 95% in quarter, inspection drill, and competitive drill $3,190. The Woodmen of Merrill are greatly elated over the excellent showing made by their team and the members are receiving many compliments.

Hayward

The store and postoffice at Earl, a small station near this city on the Omaha line, was entered by yeggmen and about $450 taken from the safe. The safe was opened by the combination without the use of a drill or explosives, giving evidence that the job was the work of skilled cracksmen. The detectives believe that the robbery was the job of professional yeggs who probably came from some big city.

Hurley

Acting on the protest of Sheriff Whiteside the town board refused to grant liquor licenses to eighteen applicants. The sheriff's protest was made on the ground that the saloons in question were frequented by women of immoral character. With the support of the town board he means to better the moral standing of Hurley. Applications have already been taken out to conduct saloons in the buildings occupied by those who were refused licenses.

Eagle River

Camp Winnepe, a summer outing camp for boys opened Saturday with a large attendance. The camp is situated at Grand View on the south shore of Catfish lake in an ideal spot. There are two departments, the Senior and Junior divisions. The boys are given lessons in physical culture and all kinds of outdoor exercise by an efficient corps of instructors. Long canoe trips, journeys through the forests, swimming, hunting and fishing are parts of the schedule.

Marshfield

At a meeting of the Marshfield Advancement Association business men subscribed $20,000 for stock in a separator factory to be built within the next month. The plant will employ forty men on the start.

Stevens Point

With impressive ceremony the corner stone of the new postoffice building in this city was laid Tuesday. The stone was placed at the southeast corner of the building, near Main and Union Streets. Postmaster D. E. Frost officiated at the ceremony in the presence of a monster crowd. A number of records, papers, coins and etc. were deposited within the receptacle.

HONEST MEDICINE

VERSUS FAKES

President Taft's recent message suggesting an amendment to the Pure Food and Drugs law in its relation to Prepared Medicines, does not refer to such standard medicines as Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and Foley Kidney Pills, both of which are true medicines carefully compounded of ingredients whose medicinal qualities are recognized by the medical profession itself as the best known remedial agents for the diseases they are intended to counteract. For over three decades Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been a standard remedy for coughs, colds and affections of the throat, chest and lungs for children and for grown persons, and it retains today its pre-eminence above all other preparations of its kind. Foley Kidney Pills are equally effective and meritorious.

HUNTINGTON-SIEWWRIGHT

Pretty Wedding Ceremony Is Performed At Platteville

St. Mary's Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding this morning, when Miss Margaret Huntington became the bride of Harry E. Siewwright of Rhinelander. The ceremony occurred at eight o'clock performed by Rev. Father Lillis, and was the nuptial high mass. The bride was attended by Miss Laura Kelly, of this city, and the groom by James Desmond of Madison.

The bride looked lovely in an elegant gown of cream Japanese crepe which was embroidered and made up with real lace and handsome pearl trimmings. She carried a large bouquet of daisies and a shower bouquet of sweet peas. She wore a large picture hat of white trimmed with white tulle and white sweet peas and narcissus. The bridesmaid wore a white mull gown over pink and wore a picture hat of white also. She carried pink roses.

Ned Estabrook of Pittsburg was the usher at the church.

After the service at the church an elegant and dainty wedding breakfast was served to about sixty invited guests at the home of the bride's parents, which was prettily decorated with ferns, daisies and other flowers, for the occasion.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Huntington, prominent and highly respected people of Platteville. She was educated in the schools of our city and graduated from the Normal two years ago, since which time she has taught in the schools of Rhinelander. She is a young lady of many graces and a charming personality.

The groom is one of the rising and bustling young business men of his city and bears a worthy reputation. The young couple will make their home in Rhinelander, where a cozy cottage is ready for their occupancy.—Platteville Journal.

Board of Public Works.

FEED MANY PEOPLE

The Rhinelander hotels and restaurants supplied meals to an unusually large number of people Tuesday. While the majority of these patrons were strangers in the city many were local residents who did not care to bother with preparing meals at home. Some of the local had special menus for the day.

FLASHES FROM THE HEADLIGHT

Bits of News Pertaining To The Soo and Northwestern
Railroads

Since the C. & N. W. has seen fit to take the two limited passenger trains off this division, they have virtually converted it into a cowpath. Instead of reducing time between here and Milwaukee and Chicago as should be the practice with an up-to-date railroad, they unload all the old junk engines on the system up this way and from time to time lengthen out the schedule as the engines get nearer the scrap heap, much as a driver is obliged to do with a heavy horse in the hot months. If they don't stretch out the time, the trains run late so that it makes no difference.—Clintonville Tribune.

Fourth of July travel on the Soo and Northwestern lines from and through this city was very heavy and it was necessary to add extra coaches to all trains in order to comfortably accommodate the crowds. The Northwestern parlor car was well patronized by people making long distance trips.

Work on the Soo line extension from Frederic to Duluth is progressing rapidly. The grading of the first three miles north of Frederic will be completed by the middle of July. F. J. Mann of Milwaukee, who has the contract for grading the next six miles, has three camps open. Almost 2,000 men are now at work on the first thirty miles north of Frederic. It is expected that all rails will be laid by Oct. 1 and through train service installed before the end of the year.

Roadmaster P. H. Flattley of the Soo line is wearing a smile that puts the famous facial expression of Teddy Roosevelt in the shade. This is all due to the fact that he became the father of a little daughter, Tuesday, P. H. passed around the cigars.

A Slight Yellowness

And in some cases almost a greenish cast in your linen, makes you look poorly dressed, no matter how well the goods may be finished.

Our finished work is WHITE and compared with that of our competitors, presents a decidedly better appearance.

Our goods are clean, sanitarily and otherwise, do you think the same can be said of those with the cast?

PLAY HACKLEY TEAM

Cubs Badly Crippled and Lost Last Sunday's Game.

The Cubs, Rhinelander's much talked of second base ball team, were defeated at Hackley Sunday by a 21 to 7 score.

To one not acquainted with the conditions under which the game was played the result looks bad. But, one must not judge before he learns the truth, for it is known, that the Cubs were sorely crippled owing to the absence of several strong players. In short there were only five of the regular men on the team and they were powerless to cope with the well organized Hackley line-up.

Steve Gwidt, manager of the Cubs, stated that his boys made a very good showing under the circumstances. He challenged Hackley for a return contest and expressed the opinion that the result would be different.

A BIRTHDAY GATHERING

The home of Wint Jewett on South Main street was the scene of great activity and rejoicing. The event was the celebration of the 72d birthday of G. P. Jewett, who is the oldest brother of Wint Jewett, and traveled the long road from Stockton, Cal., to be present at this reunion and was therefore the center of attraction and the honored guest of the occasion. Mr. Jewett went west in an early day and has not seen his brothers and sisters for 54 years. The brothers and sisters present were Geo. P. Jewett of Stockton, Cal., Mrs. Alvera Macomber of Ravenna, Neb., Liberty Harrison Jewett, Winchester Jewett and Mrs. Esther Teeter, of Poynette. In addition to these were Henry L. Jewett and wife of Rhinelander, C. B. Teeter and family, Fred Teeter and family and Ray Curtis and wife of Poynette and Mrs. A. Ferguson of Lodi. 28 guests in all.—Poynette Press.

HAY FEVER AND SUMMER COLDS

Must be relieved quickly and Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will do it. E. M. Stewart, 1034 Wolfram St., Chicago, writes: "I have been greatly troubled during the hot summer months with Hay Fever and find that by using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound I get great relief." Many others who suffer similarly will be glad to benefit by Mr. Stewart's experience.—J. J. Reardon.

TOURING THE WEST

Miss Olive Rogers departed Saturday morning for a tour of the west. At St. Paul she was joined by Misses Blanche and Sophia Ransom and the party will visit Yellowstone Park, Spokane and Seattle. On their return home they will travel on the Canadian Pacific railway, leaving from Vancouver and stopping enroute at Banff, the famous Canadian resort. The tour will occupy several weeks.

KIDNEY DISEASES ARE CURABLE under certain conditions. The right medicine must be taken before the disease has progressed too far. Mr. Perry A. Pittman, Dolo, Tex., says: "I was down in bed for four months with kidney and bladder trouble and gall stones. One bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy cured me well and sound." Ask for it.—J. J. Reardon.

PACKED!! CROWDED!!

JAMMED!!

All sales records broken by the mighty crowds of buyers that swarmed the store from end to end. It's an ovation, a spontaneous, spectacular success. Every foot of the store a bee hive of buying activity---every counter mobbed with orders. It's the most merciless and astounding butchery of prices that ever dumfounded the people of Rhineland. Competition stands aghast at this wanton slaughter of America's best merchandise at these sacrilegious prices. Profits are annihilated and cost lost sight of. We've only one object in view.===

SELL OUT THE ENTIRE STOCK AT ONCE

Dumping out what's left at 40, 50 and 60c on the dollar. Tomorrow again this monster price cutting rampage continues with unabated fury, and still greater reductions, unheard of bargains in every department, lot after lot at prices to amaze you. You're face to face with the sacrifice of the century, for the very life has been cut out of the prices. BUY!! BUY!! BUY!! Be with the crowds when the doors open tomorrow morning.

NECESSITY DEMANDS AN ABSOLUTE AND POSITIVE CLEARANCE

This entire stock dumped into piles and marked at the most sensational prices. The bubble of profit has burst---cost is not considered---SELL! SELL!! SELL!!!---Sell out the entire stock, no matter what it brings. Don't fail to attend this rousing bargain carnival, it's an unparalleled saving opportunity where where $1.00 buys $2.00, $3.00 and even $4.00 worth. READ ON.
